

Group Residential and Automobile Insurance exclusively for CAPA Employees

E&O Insurance

As the general public increases to be ever weary of corporate integrity, professionals such as Physician Assistants are forced to seek adequate protection. E & O insurance is the way to do exactly that. The Willis - Physician Assistant E&O Policy protects against exposures arising out of performing daily duties. It builds the most logical and affordable wall of defense around the Physician Assistant, valuable against frivolous allegations claiming a wrong-doing or negligence.

As a Physician Assistant, your certification, qualification and reputation are all products of your laborious dedication. Procuring Physician Assistant E&O insurance through Willis is simply the best way to protect the fruits of that labour while allowing you to further provide your valuable service, expertise and advice.
